PAST SPONSORS

"The RESI team was terrific. The goal was to expand our relationship with local startups and investors... RESI Boston was the right event to engage in this vibrant life science ecosystem. Working up to the event was a productive and efficient process... The RESI team was super professional and supportive and knew what we wanted to accomplish. They asked us the right questions around indications, technologies, etc. We were also super impressed with the company database."

Jim MacKrell, PhD, Associate Vice President and Head of Lilly Ventures, Eli Lilly and Company
